

Terms and Conditions of Entry

Belfast Titanic Maritime Festival, 10am – 6pm, Saturday 19 and Sunday 20 May 2018

- Access to the event will be on a first come first served basis
- Access to ships is dependent upon operational arrangements and tidal restrictions
- For security and safety reasons patrons may be subject to a search and will be required to have photographic identification when boarding visiting naval vessels
- Ships have the authority to restrict items permitted on board
- Belfast City Council requests that patrons assist in creating a shared event space. Therefore, we reserve the right to restrict access to its events if it is deemed, by the Council, that a patron(s) is/are in breach of this position. Belfast City Council also has a duty to ensure various equality rights are protected under S75 of the Northern Ireland Act, and reserves the right to restrict access to events should a patron be behaving in a way that is likely to constitute a breach of these obligations.
- Only alcohol purchased at the Maritime Festival bar will be permitted onsite and cannot be consumed outside of the confines of the bar
- Under 16's must be accompanied by an adult
- No glassware or cans permitted on site
- Food and drink facilities available on site
- No barbeques or naked flames
- Once on site you assume all risk of injury and all responsibility for property loss, destruction or theft, and release organisers, sponsors, performers, venue and their employees from any liability
- No dogs, except assistance dogs, in food areas
- All dogs must be kept on a leash within the event site
- Cyclists should dismount and push their bicycles when accessing the event site
- Charity collections, leafleting and other promotional activity not authorised by Belfast City Council Events Unit cannot take place onsite
- Belfast City Council has the right to refuse admission
- Belfast City Council has the right to refuse entry to those under the influence of alcohol and who would be deemed by the organisers to be a hazard to themselves and/or others
- Belfast City Council reserves the right to make any alterations to the advertised details for the event