

Preparation time: 10 mins (after twigs are collected) Activity time: 15 mins

You will need:

- A piece of card for each child roughly 30cm x 10cm
- Have a handful of little twigs prepared for each child; if possible from the trees that have been looked at during the session.
- Buds & Twigs Facts

Activity

- Ask the children to carefully write their name on the card in pencil.
- Using glue, trace their name
- They can attach the twigs over their name to create a name sign.

Learning Outcomes

Art and Design

Pupils should be enabled to:

- engage with observing, investigating, and responding to first hand experiences, memory and imagination;
- collect, examine and select resource material to use in the development of ideas;
- look at and talk about the work of artists, designers and craftworkers from their own and other cultures; appreciate methods used in the resource materials and use their appreciation to stimulate personal ideas and engage with informed art making;
- develop their understanding of the visual elements of colour, tone, line, shape, form, space, texture and pattern to communicate their ideas.
