Appointment

The appointment will be made by the selection panel, but will be subject to ratification by the director of the relevant department.

If you are currently placed on furlough, you will be required to return from furlough to commence in this post.

There are currently two permanent, full-time posts.

There may be a reserve list of applicants drawn up for this post which would last for a maximum of 12 months. Should a similar post become vacant within this time, it may be offered to those on the reserve list, in order of merit, without further interview. For generic-type posts, this may include posts in another department. These posts may be either full-time or part-time or job share on a permanent or temporary basis.

An existing permanent employee will be offered a temporary post on the basis of undertaking a 'temporary project/cover/review' post with the right to return to his or her substantive post at the conclusion of the 'temporary project/cover/review' post. An existing fixed term contract employee will be offered a temporary post on the basis of a further fixed term contract in a 'temporary project/cover/review' post but with no automatic right to revert back to his or her original fixed term contract post. Fixed term contract employees should give consideration to this prior to applying for or accepting another post on a temporary basis.

Only Belfast City Council employees, who are employees as at the closing date for this post and who continue to be employees throughout the selection process for this post, are eligible to apply. Agency assignees and casual workers, who are not Council employees, are not eligible to apply. Applicants who are no longer current employees as at the short-listing, testing/assessment or interview stage will not be eligible to progress through the process, even if they were an employee at the closing date for receipt of applications. Similarly, if placed on the reserve list, applicants must still be current employees as at the point in time that a vacancy arises. Applicants who are no longer Belfast City Council employees will not be offered any future vacant posts from a reserve list, even if the timing of the reserve list is still valid.

Applicants recommended for appointment must complete all relevant pre-employment checks within 10 working days or consideration will be given to withdrawing the recommendation for appointment and no formal offer of appointment will be made. Upon completion of relevant checks, applicants must formally accept and start employment in the post within a four week period. If offered a permanent post, employees currently undertaking a temporary project/cover/review post will not be permitted to continue working in that temporary post, even if it is of a higher grade. They must take up the permanent post within a strict four week period. This has always been the agreed practice within Belfast City Council and it is of critical importance that it is strictly adhered to especially during this period of significant re-organisation and change when the Council is striving to achieve permanency and stability.

However please also be advised that, given the business need for the post-holder to carry out site visits, enforcement, investigative, consultative and advisory duties related to the work of the Operational Planning Service with organisations and customers across the city, as well as the need to provide occasional cover for out of hours services, the 'reasonableness' of this adjustment will be thoroughly considered prior to any appointment being made.

Location

The person appointed will be based initially in the 9 Adelaide Building, 9 – 21 Adelaide Street, Belfast, but will be required to work in and/or visit other locations.

Please note, given the uncertainty of the ongoing situation with Covid 19 (Coronavirus) and the closure of council buildings, you may be asked, in the first instance, to report to a different location, work from home and/or be reassigned or redeployed to another area of work within the council.

If the person appointed acquires a conviction throughout the course of his/her employment with Belfast City Council, he/she must bring this to the attention of his/her line manager/departmental HR representative. Failure to comply with this request can result in a breach of the terms and conditions of employment and may result in sanction or dismissal. A copy of the council's Disciplinary Procedure and Grievance Procedure will be issued to all new employees at the council's Induction Course.

Service and hours of duty

The hours of duty are 37 per week, working five days per week, Monday to Friday. Flexible working hours are in operation between 7.30am and 6.30pm, with set core times that the person appointed must be in work. However, the person appointed will be required to start and finish work at specific times that suit the operational needs of the service and she/he will, when advised, be required to work outside of these hours for operational reasons including on extra statutory, bank and/or public holidays.

In accordance with the National Joint Council for Local Government Services National Agreement on Pay and Conditions of Service variations to the established working week or patterns of work will be reasonable and subject to adequate notice.

Annual leave

Annual leave and extra statutory, bank or public holiday entitlement is calculated in hours/minutes.

A person appointed on the standard full time hours of 37 per week will be entitled to 170.2 hours (23 days) annual leave, plus 88.8 hours (12 days) bank or other holidays.

Annual leave entitlement will be increased by 37 hours (5 days) in the case of officers who have not less than 5 years' continuous service and by a further 22.2 hours (3 days) in the case of officers who have not less than 10 years' continuous service.

Figures in brackets represent the number of days based upon a standard day of 7.4 hrs.

For individuals who do not work the standard full-time hours, annual leave and extra statutory, bank or public holiday entitlement will be calculated on pro-rata basis to their contracted hours, based on the standard full time hours of 37 per week and a standard day of 7.4 hours (i.e. 7 hrs 24 minutes).

Employees are entitled to a holiday with a normal day's pay for each of the statutory, general and public holidays as they occur. Where the balance of the employee's public / bank and statutory holiday entitlement has been exhausted, additional leave taken for public / bank and statutory holidays will be deducted from the employee's annual leave entitlement.

All employees required to work on extra statutory, bank or public holidays will be remunerated in accordance with Part 3, paragraph 2 of the National Joint Council for Local Government Services National Agreement on Pay and Conditions of Service.

The leave year commences on 1 April. If an employee starts part way through the annual leave year, the employee will receive annual leave entitlement on a pro rata basis, calculated on the number of days remaining in the current leave year from the first day of employment.

Sick leave

This scheme is intended to supplement Statutory Sick Pay and Incapacity Benefit so as to maintain normal pay during defined periods of absence on account of sickness, disease, accident or assault. Absence in respect of normal sickness is entirely separate from absence through industrial disease, accident or assault arising out of or in the course of employment with a local authority. Periods of absence in respect of one shall not be set off against the other for the purpose of calculating entitlements under the scheme. Employees are entitled to receive sick pay for the following periods:

During first year of service	one month's full pay and (after completing four months service) two months half pay
During second year of service	two months' full pay, and two months' half pay
During third year of service	four months' full pay, and four months' half pay

During fourth and fifth years of service five months' full pay, and five months' half pay
After five years' service six months' full pay, and six months' half pay

Superannuation

The person appointed will automatically become a member of the Local Government Pension Scheme (Northern Ireland) LGPS (NI) in line with scheme regulations. He or she may opt out of the scheme. However, the council is required to comply with automatic enrolment provisions and will automatically enrol the person appointed at certain times. Car user

This job may require the post-holder to visit and carry out council duties in areas and locations across the city as and when required. If required to travel for official Council business, the post-holder will be reimbursed at the appropriate mileage rate.

Canvassing

Canvassing in any form, oral or written, direct or indirect, will disqualify an applicant for appointment. Candidates can, however, contact the relevant department for further information about the post. The person from the relevant department who provides further information should not be a member of the selection panel.
